 - Flyers, business cards, and message cards (for your orders). You will be given extras.
 - Candy, chocolates or flowers may be given at your own expense, or may be provided budget depending.
 - You are welcome to give out your own Quartet or Chorus promotional materials.
- DIGITAL PHOTOS/VIDEO: Email them to us at indo@sing4me.net along with the photo release forms. Please remember to ask them to SHARE them to our Facebook page or by email. If they SHARE, that is giving us permission for at least facebook! A Photo/Video Release form is available on website to fill in on the website materials page.
- SONGS: Each quartet is expected to sing (at least) two songs at each gig. Set the appropriate tone (eg. when men sing to a male recipient). You are responsible to get copyright clearance if needed. Suggested public domain songs:

"Let Me Call You Sweetheart"	"I've Got a Crush on You, Sweetie Pie"
"Story of the Rose" (Heart of My Heart)	"You Must Have Been a Beautiful Baby"
"Sweet and Lovely" (That's What You Are to Me)	"Love is all that I Can Give to You"
"Cuddle up a Little Closer"	"I Don't Know Why"
- AUDITION: Every quartet MUST audition (before their chapter) to ensure a consistent level of quality in the Singing Valentines program. This is required for any new or pickup quartet which has not participated in the program in the past. Set up Audition and Audience times with your director or Music Team to help ensure a quality valentine.
- DRESS: Formal is optional. If you go with a costume or theme, we still expect classy.
 - Tuxedo with bow tie, and optional cummerbund or dress pants with a formal vest and dressy tie. Patten leather shoes.
 - Ladies wear something on the fancy side appropriate to Valentines mode (doesn't have to be a dress)
 - Valentine red is a must where possible (bow tie, cummerbund, vest, scarf)
